

Lambert Clinton Titzman

2311 Pintail Lane
College Station, Texas 77845
(281) 435-5097
ctitzman@hotmail.com

Education

Texas A&M University
Masters of Science in Chemical Engineering
GPA: 3.40 Expected Graduation: May 2006

Texas A&M University
Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering—May 2003
Overall GPA: 3.11

Coastal Bend College
Intermediate Course Work
GPA: 3.52

Employment History

2003-Present Technical Director Sleep Technology Institute
Sugar Land, Texas

Technical Director and Registered Polysomnographic Technologist responsible for managing and training technicians in multiple locations, including opening new satellite offices, scoring recorded study data, generating reports for referring physicians, and interacting with physicians to facilitate treatment of patients with sleep disorders.

1998-2003 Summer Employment Sleep Technology Institute
Sugar Land, Texas

Worked as a polysomnographic technologist, and performed sleep studies on patients. The job required an understanding of the computer monitoring system, troubleshooting skills and interpersonal skills.

Research Topic

Engineered, designed, and constructed a prototype building from the papercrete.

Awards & Leadership Roles

- Chemical Engineering Graduate Student Council Member (2005)
- Responsible for establishing Organization of Chemical Engineering Graduate Students at Texas A&M (OChEGS) (2005)
- 2005-2006 President of OCheGS
- Dow Chemical Scholarship (2004)
- Wayne Shirley Academic Scholarship (1998)
- 100% college expenses through summer and part-time jobs